

Meet Patience Knight

Here is a fun picture of our own Patience Knight in action for Texas Tech. We are all very proud of her spirit and her accomplishments. If you want to be inspired, and would like to read the amazing story of this remarkable young woman and how she has inspired her coach and teammates by continuing to compete, sometimes coming to practice right after a chemotherapy session, you can go on line at:http://www.redraiders.com/stories/060607/tra\_060607006.shtml (Just be sure you have a box of tissues nearby.) Patience has qualified for the Olympic trials (We were told this by another parent; coaches think it's true; we will let you know.) and is an NCAA All American Athlete. PATIENCE IS ALSO A BRONZE MEDALIST!!! CHECK OUT THE TEXAS TECH ATHLETICS WEBSITE. By the way, the picture above is three years old! Patience is wearing her hair short and sassy now:) Go Patience go!!! We are all praying for you.
